

THE FLORA JANE BAKER CLERGY SABBATICAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

The Flora Jane Baker CLERGY SABBATICAL FELLOWSHIP program is intended to provide opportunity and funding for up to four (4) United Church of Canada congregational ministers a year who are undertaking a church leadership approved sabbatical to receive up to $10,500.00 to support 2-3 months of educational renewal in Youth Experience OR Theological Studies. The experience and courses MUST be taken at Queen's School of Religion in Theological Studies and include faculty mentoring as available, a basic office with desk, phone and computer, living expenses while in Kingston, travel costs, tuition and course books. Participation in the life of the School in the form of attendance at chapel and informal discussions with students is welcome. Please note: Time beyond the experience and courses chosen is open to the recipient's discretion as befits sabbatical and personal goals.

The recipients to date have found it meaningful and refreshing!

2 Spaces are still open for 2011!

Apply soon by downloading an application at <http://www.queensu.ca/religion/theology/leadership/clergysabbatical.html> and submitting it to holmesp@queensu.ca

Information about Queen's School of Religion can be found at www.queensu.ca/religion.

Information about Queen's University can be found at www.queensu.ca

Information about Kingston can be found at www.cityofkingston.ca.

Information about housing opportunities and other details can be requested at holmesp@queensu.ca